

Vale District Baker Recreation

Bassar Diggins

Bassar Diggins is located in the forested timbers of Lookout Mountain. With its high elevation, it makes for cool summers under the aspen, tamarak, and Douglas fir trees. Deer, elk, grouse, and chucker in the area make Bassar Diggins a great hunting camp. With all the wildflowers in bloom and the wildlife, it is a wonderful place for summer camping.

---

Activities:

Facilities: The camping area has 3 sites, vault toilets, picnic table, shade trees and drinking water for animals.

The day-use area provides vault toilets, picnic table, and shade trees.

Fees: Bassar Diggins is a free-use area. Maximum stay is 14 days.

Season: April 1- Nov. 15
Depends on road conditions.

Other: Durkee, Oregon is the nearest town, 25 miles away.

